About

A new digital library filled with reading materials for young learners grades K to 2 to introduce them to the joy of reading

- 374 readers and stories perfect for children starting to read
- Accompanying audio for all books in library
- Children can pick books they like to read based on their interests
- Teachers can assign books for reading exercises

Why do all books on have audio?

For children who are starting to read, having books read to them has great benefits:

- Following along visually while listening can enhance word-recognition ability
- Listening to audio alone can expand vocabulary
- Young children gain the skills and confidence to read with audio books
- Children can read with minimal adult intervention

The Literacy Pro Earlybird Experience

The screenshot displays the Literacy Pro Earlybird interface for a teacher named Gagandeep Walia. The dashboard includes a navigation bar with 'HOME', 'BOOKS', and 'COLLECTIONS' tabs. The user's profile shows 'Gagandeep Walia' from 'Team Zero, TeamAssessments' with a 'Change' link. A 'School Calendar 2020-2021' dropdown is also visible. The main section features four progress metrics: 'BOOKS FROM MY TEACHER' (4), 'BOOKS I HAVE READ' (25), 'WORDS I HAVE READ' (180), and 'My Time Reading' (1 hrs 5 mins). Below this, a 'BOOKS FROM MY TEACHER' section lists four assigned books: 'Mighty Trains', 'Jack and Jill', 'The Little Red Hen', and 'The Spider and the Beehive'. Two callout boxes on the right provide context: one points to the progress metrics as a 'Snapshot of child's progress', and another points to the book list as 'Books that the teacher assigns are visible upon login'.
